Larry D. Smith

Died—December 5, 2008

Larry D. Smith, passed away on December 5, at the age of 68.

Larry was born April 16, 1940 to Virginia and Durward Smith in Kansas City, MO. He grew up in Dallas TEXAS and graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School in 1959. He studied Business Management and Marketing at Arlington State College and served in the U.S. Army as a 1st LT. and Company Commander in Vietnam, and in the reserves until 1973.

Larry was involved in many civic and philanthropic organizations through the years. He was a kind and faithful husband, father, Papa, son-in-law, and friend. Larry never met a stranger and had a compassion for anyone in need. He brought joy to everyone who knew him.

He met the love of his life, Jean on a blind date in 1968 and married her and her four small children in 1974. Always patient, never easily angered, always protecting, always trusting, always hoping, and always persevering, Larry showed us that love never fails. He is preceded in death by his parents, brother, Dennis Smith, and uncle, Charles Knight. Survivors: wife, Jean Smith; children, Donna Feuchter and husband, Max, Anita Braun and husband, Tom, Brian Hughey, and Shannon Brame; grandchildren, who brought him great joy, include Cory, Cole, and Cameron Feuchter, and Rebecca and Josh Brame. Larry loved people and leaves behind numerous new and life-long friends and relatives.
